HARRY PUTNAM BADLY HURT.

Harry Putnam was seriously hurt Monday morning about 9 o'clock at the shoe factory where he is employed. A belt had slipped off of a pulley, and young Putnam got on a machine to replace it, when from some cause the belt wrapped around the shaft jerking the unfortunate man together with the machine off the floor, both hitting the ceiling; and in falling Mr. Putnam landed on his back across another machine, hurting his back and head, and damaging the machine. Just how bad he is hurt is not known, but it is hoped that no serious consequence will result.

Mr. Putnam is a nephew of Arthur Holmes, of this city. He came to this city last spring and soon after gained employment with the Morris Bros. Shoe Factory, where he has made a most efficient employee.

MEAGER SALARIES EMPTYING PULPITS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—The Presbyterian Church in common with other denominations, has experienced a loss of more than 20 per cent of candidates for the ministry in the last decade, according to Rev. Dr. J. W. O'Brien, corresponding secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Education. Low salaries is the reason he assigns.

"It is a disgrace to the church that the average pay of the ministry is so meager," declares Rev. Dr. O'Brien. "Metropolitan salaries bring up to $600 or $800 of the village pastor to less than $100 in the average."

I heard a minister in Minnesota who receives $25 a month and has three churches. One is 15 miles distant from another. He has been compelled to walk the distance every Sunday, but, finding his health being impaired, he bought a horse and killed it in two months from overwork. The horse cost $100, and he is paying $10 a month for the dead horse and $3 a month for rent, leaving him $12 a month for himself and family to live on.

I told this to a negro synod in the South, and one of the brightest men in the synod arose and said:

"Brother, that would be a luxurious salary for us down here. We are getting $15 a month."

"An effort will, I believe, soon be made in the church to remedy this unfortunate situation. Living is 50 per cent higher than 10 years ago, yet the salaries of ministers have, as far as my experience goes, remained stationary. Something must be done for the best young men of the church will feel more strongly than they do now that the church is recreant and unworthy, and that they can help the fallen humanity and save souls in other ways than by entering the ministry of a selfish church."

Money in Hand and in Bank.

A dollar in the hand is worth two in the bank.—Merrillville (Mo.) Republican.

This editorial assertion by "The Times" most esteemed contemporaries is estimable as wit, perhaps, but it has no foundation in fact.

It is simply because a lot of timid persons who had two dollars in bank drew them out and are now holding one of them in hand, that the country has had some semblance of a financial flurry.

Not stocking, nor vaults, nor cupboards are places to keep money, but sound banks, where from it activities can aid commerce and assist industry.—St. Louis Times.

JACKSON TURLEY.

Two of Mexico's Prominent Young People United in Marriage at the Home of the Brides Parents Wednesday Evening.

The marriage of Miss Eighty-One Turley to Mr. Rufus Jackson took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Turley, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. K. Kottendorfer. The marriage of these young people joins together two of Mexico's most prominent families. Mr. Jackson has been one of Audrain's brightest and best school teachers, always liked wherever he made acquaintance. Mr. Jackson is a son of Mrs. Mary Jackson, and is at present Assessor of Audrain county, which office he has filled to the credit of both himself and the county. He is also secretary of the Business Men's Association where he has gained favor by his unceasing energy and business like ability.

At the hour of 8:30 o'clock, to the sweet strains of the wedding march entitled "Hills and Dales," played by Miss Beattie Smith, of Cherokee, Kansas, the couple walked to the center of the parlor where the ceremony was performed. After the ceremony an informal reception was tendered the bride and groom.

The bride was dressed in white organdy over white tulle with veil and gloves to match. Her bridesmaid, Miss Tib Evans, of Monroe City, also wore white, trimmed in pink. The maid-of-honor was Mrs. Ernest Boone, of Thompson, and the ring bearer, little Miss Dorothy Sannbeck of this city. The groom and his best man, a brother of the bride, Dr. I. H. Furley wore the conventional black.

The drawing room and the parlor was decorated in white similar and green chrysanthemums, as will also the reception room. In the drawing room Misses Leona Jackson and Nellie Pool of Centralia, served punch.

Those on the receiving line were Misses May Jackson, Tris and Kitty Turley, Winifred Fox and Jessie McKean. In the dining room, which were decorated in green similar and red chrysanthemums, Miss Minnie Sannbeck served hot coffee, and Mrs. Scroggins, of Auxvasse, hot chocolate. There were four little girls to act as waiters, Evaline Jackson, Maybelle Wales, Beulah Marshall and Ariene Squires.

Many beautiful presents as well as useful ones were received.

The wedding was a quite affair, and only a few friends of the contracting parties attending. After the reception the happy couple went to their home which has been prepared by Mr. Jackson on Franklin ave.

The Ledger joins their friends in extending heartiest congratulations.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Negotiations have begun, on the initiative of Chicago bankers, with New York and St. Louis financial institutions to agree upon the day on which to resume cash payments in all departments of the banks.

With the gold that has already arrived and that which is in transit, conservative bankers figure that all demands can be easily met, in fact, nothing is being put in the way of savings bank depositors here to withdraw money for investment purposes.
